Dr. Colin A. Ross

Dr. Colin A. Ross is an internationally renowned clinician, researcher, author and lecturer in the field of dissociation and trauma-related disorders. He is the founder and President of The Colin A. Ross Institute for Psychological Trauma.

Dr. Ross obtained his M.D. from the University of Alberta in 1981 and completed his training in psychiatry at the University of Manitoba in 1985. He has been running a hospital-based Trauma Program in Dallas, Texas since 1991.

PARTICIPANTS WILL BE ABLE TO:

- Describe core principles of Trauma Model Therapy (TMT) including the problem of attachment to the perpetrator and the locus of control shift.
- Describe core principles of Trauma Model Therapy (TMT) including the problem is not the problem, just say “no” to drugs, and addiction is the opposite of desensitization.
- Describe how these principles of TMT can be used in the treatment of domestic violence as well as the treatment of addictions.
